Hi Again:

The two pictures are am sending were not in the album but two that I had. Do you know who the wedding picture is of the couple in the picture. The other is my Grandmother Lula and Aunt Ida Dawson Sterling when they were quite elderly and taken likely here in Laurel when on one of my Grandmother's last visits here.

Hi Barbara:

I haven't corresponded with you for some time. How are you folks doing these days? My cousin Richard Fitzpatrick sent me an old photo album that contains a lot of pictures of the Brock Family. I know they are of the Brock's because the pictures are taken in Nevada, Missouri. I have been in touch with Ann Neal and sent her some of the pictures I scanned and she suggested I also send them to you for identification.

Attached to this Email are two of those pictures. Let me know if you received them and if you can identify the individuals.

I hope you folks have a very Merry Christmas.

Your cousin,

Roy

Frank Emery was born May 25, 1867 near Ottumwa, Iowa, the third child of Aaron and Mary Jane Hickman Emery. He was 4 years old when the family moved to Vernon County, 9 when his mother died, and almost 15 when his father was killed. He made his home with married brothers and sisters, and also his uncle, John Hickman, until on December 23, 1886 he married Annie Drusilla Brock, eldest child of Lafayette and Sarah Frances Powell Brock. She was born September 26, 1867 near Lanesville, Indiana. The Brock family had moved southwest of Nevada in the early 1880's from New Albany, Indiana. Frank and Annie began their married life on the 90 acres on the Deerfield/Center Township line which he inherited from his father. They lived in a small log cabin until 1904 when a large frame house was built. Gradually Frank added over 100 acres to his farm. He and Annie were parents of 8 children: Myrtle Florence (Baskett), Millie May (Wolfe), Ethel Ellen (Wolf), Harvey Lester, Elven Fillmore, Kinnie Allen, David Franklin and Lawrence Vernon.

Frank and Annie were active members of Sylvan Dale Baptist

When he was two years old, the family moved to his Grandma Emery's farm where they lived until 1951. After graduating from NHS in 1957, Larry attended college at Fayetteville, Arkansas one and one-half years before enlisting in the Army. LAWRENCE AND GENEVA EMERY Lawrence Vernon Emery was a true Vernon Countian: born in Sylvan Dale community October 16, 1912, living here all his life. He was the youngest child of Frank and Annie Emery, early se[illegible].

Lawrence and Mary Geneva Kemp were married July 15, 1934 at his parent's home. His brother, David, performed the ceremony. Geneva was born in Kansas City, Missouri, March 8, 1913, and came with her parents to Vernon County in 1932. It was Depression time and the young couple lived with his parents until 1936 when they rented a farm near Bristow. Two children were born here, Marilyn Kay (McFadden) in 1937, and Larry Alan, 1939. After his father's death in 1941, the couple returned to live with his mother on her farm, and there two more children were born, Don Kent, 1941, and Kathleen Sue (Steele), 1949. Geneva's youngest sister, Carol Ann Kemp (Walker) lived with them from 1945 to 1953. All graduated from NHS, and three went on to college. When his sister, Millie Wolfe, came to live with their mother in 1951, Lawrence's family moved to their own farm nearby. Lawrence loved farming and continued until in 1964, ill health forced retirement. In 1969, after partially recovering his health, he began working in the laundry at Nevada State Hospital, retiring in 1978.

- ID: I003
- Name: Lafayette Brock
- Sex: M
- Birth: 21 NOV 1840 in Floyd Co., Indiana
- Death: 29 OCT 1916 in Vernon Co., Missouri
- Note:

Lafayette Brock was born in New Albany, Indiana just across the Ohio River from Louisville, Kentucky.
'Lafe' joined the Third Cavalry Regiment of the Indiana Mounted Volunteers, a Division of the Union Army, on the 4th of July, 1861 in Corydon, Indiana, when he was 19 years old. (Corydon is on the Ohio River, downstream a few miles from Louisville.)
By July 22nd his Company had moved to Madison, Indiana (upriver, midway between Cincinnati and Louisville), The South side of the Ohio River was Confederate Territory.
In 1862 Lafe was at Antietem when on September 18th, a confederate shell exploded nearby as he was crossing the Antietem bridge. The blast knocked him from his horse, and he was left for dead in a ditch, surrounded by numerous other wounded and dead soldiers. His Colonel was killed in the explosion. It wasn't until troops returned to recover the dead that he was discovered alive. The explosion left him deaf in his right ear and mostly deaf in the left ear for the remainder of his life.
In a General Affidavit "in the matter of Lafayette Brock who during the war of the Rebellion was a Member of Co. B, 3rd Indiana Cavalry"--Lafayette's application for an Invalid Pension---- Granville Hise states that :
"I was first a member of Co. B, 3rd Ind Cavl. I was then transerred to Co. C, 5th the same Regiment. I was personally acquainted with the said Lafayette Brock. I saw him when he was struck by a bursting shell in the battle of Antietem, or Sharpsburg in 1862 or Sept. 17th. It was on a wooden bridge spanning Antietam Creek. The enemy had seven pieces of artillery trained on us and the shells were flying thick and fast when one exploded on the Bridge, killing horses and men, a Colonel was killed and I do not know how man more were killed or wounded. A piece of shell or the force of explosion threw said Lafayette Brock from his saddle a few feet in the air and then he fell on the bridge floor. I was about 100 feet from him in his rear. The bridge was cleared of horses and men, then we galloped across and took our position.
I did not see him after that in the Army. As I remember it was a week after that I was taken with Typhoid fever, sent to hospital, was finally discharged. The next time I saw him was in 1864 or 1865 at Croydon, Harrison County, he was then hard of hearing as said.....hearing was since the explosion of the shell.....several times after 1865 and saw him frequently. I have met him two of three times in the last few years, he was here on a visit several different times. I noticed he has increasing deafness.

He was a good and faithful soldier.
He was not hard of hearing before he got hurt with the exploding shell. And further declare that I have no interest in said claim and am not concerned in its prosecution.----- Granville Hise
The Battle of Antietem was the bloodiest single day encounter in the entire Civil War. Confederate Troops were determined to hold the road. After the battle it was stated a man could walk from one end of the road to the other, as far as he could see and step on the bodies of Confederate Soldiers the entire route. The road is still known as 'Bloody Lane."
After the battle Lafayette was assigned duty as a Muleteer in the Ouartermaster Department, and in May of 1863 he was a "Regimental Teamster. Lafe was discharged August 31, 1864 in Indianapolis.

Lafayette applied for a disability pension in January 1904, stating he was mostly deaf, "suffered from debility, was much emaciated and bilious and have stomach troubles, and after exercise I am subject to vertigo." In June he added "heart trouble and nervousness" to the list. His pension was granted for thirty-dollars a month.

The Nevada Herald ran this story: " About 1908 H.M. Raschke began courting Emma K. Brock, the youngest daughter. Sometime during the courtship period and prior to the marriage (which lasted 51 years), they introduced their fathers to each other. Lafayette Brock and William Raschke, both then longtime residents of Nevada had never met. Yet they had served in the Union Army in many of the same major Civil War battles, although in different units. They both remembered the blood and thunder, of Gettysburg and Antietam, Bull Run and Chancellorsville. Their meeting touched off a continuing series (old comarade) stories which did not end until Lafayette's death in 1916."

The Nevada Herald ran this story: "About 1902 D.N. Rankin began courting Emma E. Brock, the youngest daughter. Sometime during the courtship period and prior to the marriage (which lasted 51 years), they introduced their fathers to each other, Lafayette Brock and William Rankin. Both then longtime residents of Nevada had never met. Yet they had served in the Union Army in many of the same major Civil War battles, although in different units. They both remembered the blood and thunder, or Gettysburg and Antietam. Bull Run and Chancellorsville. Their meeting brushed off a confusing series (old comrades) stories which did not end until Lafayette's death in 1912."

Sandy, thanks so much for the info. Not at the computer much right now, rehab several days a week and recovery time. Will get back with you before too long. I appreciate you sending the file. More later.
I do have info and pictures of Othel. I will get the info out when I reply later. I list everyone in a family with birth, marriage and death dates that is for my information. Some programs allow you to list the name but not info other than just Living.

It starts with my grandparents Joecephus and Ida and lists their 10 children (one of which died at child birth). I do not have Othel Dawson listed here. He was Ida's first child. She was married early 1900 to Will Dawson and within a year she lost her husband to pneumonia and had her first child (Othel). Do you have anything on Othel or do I need to dig something out. I know I have it but can't put my hands on it immediately. Let me know if you get this okay. This is how the person has put our family together by not giving any info. on family members still living. There are some who are nervous about identify theft issues with too much information out there and have asked that it be done this way. Hope you are good with this. How do you list it for your family? Do you put full names, birthdays, etc. for everyone or just deceased? Hope to hear from you. Take care.

Mrs. Sarah Brock Dead.

Mrs. Sarah Brock, mother of Dave Brock and Mrs. Frank Emery of the Sorghem school house neighborhood, five miles southwest of Nevada, and Mrs. Harry Rauchle of Nevada, died at the home of the former at an early hour Wednesday morning. She was 72 years of age and had been ill only a short time of a heart trouble of some kind. Six other children with widely scattered homes survive. The husband died half a dozen years ago.

Mrs. Brock had lived in Vernon county about 40 years, much of the time in Nevada of late years. She was a good, old-fashioned, motherly woman and her death will grieve a large circle of acquaintances. Some of the best people of Vernon county are her direct descendants and the Herald joins with many other friends in condolences to them and to her other relatives.

Burial was at Newton Burial Park this afternoon, the funeral being conducted by Revr Arthur Stout at 2 pm.

Sample of Significant Occurences

Battle of Antietam

On 17 September 1862, the Battle of Antietam occurred in the war between the states. The Confederates (40,00) were caught by McClellan (70,000) near Sharpsburg, Maryland, the bloodiest day of the war. Union casualties, 2,108 killed, 9,549 wounded; Confederate casualties, 2,700 killed, 9,029 wounded. Lee held his lines and the battle was a draw. Lafayette Brock my great grandfather lost the hearing in one ear during this battle. See Pension Papers and Military Records in the Archives dealing with this matter.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.
